1. Create a function that takes department ID for the department to the employee in the department with highest salary.
2. Create a function that takes employee ID and return the total number of jobs done by the employee in the past.
3. Create a function where Display 5th and 10th employees in Employees table.
4. Create a function to find out the name of the employee and their name of the cities.